

The Jones Scholars Internship Program

Providing Tulane Students the opportunity to leave a legacy

Jones Scholars Internship Placement Sites AY 2011 - 2012

The following sites have been approved for placement for the Jones Scholars Internship Program for AY 2011 – 2012. Students should rank their preferences on the application form. If you have questions or need more details, please feel free to contact Felicia R. Brown at 504-274-3682 or frbrown@tulane.edu. A total of five Jones Scholars may be selected for AY 2011-12. (NOTE: Final assignment subject to host site and program needs.)

Jones Scholars will support post-secondary and college readiness efforts with schools partnered with the Cowen Institute's AdvanceNOLA program. AdvanceNOLA's overall goal is simple: to provide New Orleans' high school students with the tools they need to succeed in college and beyond.

AdvanceNOLA College Readiness Coordinator: Serve as a college readiness coordinator with one of the Cowen Institute's AdvanceNOLA schools (see school sites below), supporting a college-going culture and efforts that improve students' chances for academic success as they transition from high school to college. Provide program and organizational support to Advanced Placement coordinators and assistance to school guidance counselors in the college application and financial aid process as well as ACT/SAT test preparation and/or career readiness. Work collaboratively with guidance counselors, principals, teachers, and school partners to increase the awareness, preparation, and college-going disposition of underserved students; provide on-site advising and information about college, the application process, and financial aid; offer individualized support with college and financial aid applications; organize workshops and programming for students and their families; arrange college tours and campus visits.
